Dear Mike,

On behalf of the staff, faculty and students of LIM, I want to thank you for bringing your engaging and thought provoking program, "Can I Kiss You?", to LIM on Friday, October 17, 2003. Your presentation was relevant, dynamic and engaging, and the feedback has been overwhelmingly positive. Staff, faculty and students have had nothing but praise for this important presentation:

- "I thought he was wonderful—full of life, energy, and enthusiasm...he made you stop and think and appreciated the 'being' in human. I look forward to seeing him again next year."
Elizabeth Marcuse, President, LIM College
- "Gen Y'ers, X'ers and Boomers alike MUST HEAR what he has to say."
Pat Tormey, Professor of Advertising
- "Mike was amazing! His presentation was life changing...I left with serious thoughts about my past relationships." LIM student
- "After seeing the presentation, I have decided to change my ways." LIM student
- "After the presentation, I went out and told my friends about it. I told them how important it was that a man, even your boyfriend, has to ask...They thought I was crazy, but after I explained to them why, they changed their minds." LIM student
- "The presentation hit very close to home for me. I had an experience similar to that of the speaker's sister, so at first I didn't really want to go. After the presentation, I realized I could learn from my experiences and use it in the future to help others be more aware." LIM student

As the reflections of the LIM community suggest, "Can I Kiss You?" effectively communicated the compassion you have for the hard issues facing young adults today. More importantly, it must be noted that any effort such as this is a noble one, but it is by bringing yourself so completely to the message you wish to convey that sets you apart from others. Your sincerity, your honesty and your integrity in handling such a delicate issue has left a lasting impression on the students of LIM. Those of us who have experienced your presentation have all come out the better for it.

In closing, Mike, know that it is with great anticipation that I look forward to working with you in the near future, and it is with great enthusiasm that I wish you the very best in your future endeavors.

Many Thanks,
